2. Modern Slavery Statement

2.1. Statement

UKPR oppose modern slavery in all its forms, and we are committed to ensuring that there is no slavery or human trafficking in our business or our supply chain. We have continued to improve our understanding of the modern slavery-related risks faced by our business, particularly considering the COVID-19 pandemic, and implemented further improvements to secure the reduction of those risks.

As we have expanded our company growth into the United Kingdom, our UKPR team have taken steps to understand, lead and commit to building our knowledge and legislation around the code of conduct and standards required.

UKPR is a responsible, ethical, and leading member of the Acquiring services and warehouse & distribution industries, supplying end-to-end supply solutions to companies worldwide, we, therefore, are dedicated to bettering our services across the board. Some of these are listed below.

- Risk assessment and management companywide
- Continue to provide a service that pays, provides, and promotes equality
- Introduce training including KPIs for staff & partners

We are defining guidelines and responsibilities for qualification and integrity due diligence of potential, new and existing business partners and business relationships including customers, third-party representatives
